

PCSC Newsletter Feb 09:

Punjabi Cultural & Sports Club has been pro active as usual. A magnificent family function was organised by the club in the wake of Lohri at Morley Recreation Centre on 11th of Jan. A crowd of more than 250 enjoyed this traditional Lohri function, a colourful evening of Cultural Events, Punjabi Music and delicious food.

The main objective of PCSC is to encourage sports and cultural by providing a healthy platform for our kids and youth so they can learn, appreciate and live Punjabi values and cultural.

The Club is organising SAWA Vaisakhi Games 09 in Perth as well. This Vaisakhi Mela will be held on 12th of April. The venue and details will be announced in Gurdwara Sahib. There will be games and fun rides for the kids along with adult's hockey, volleyball, tug of war, soccer and athletics. Please contact any SAWA member or PCSC member if you are interested in participating in Vaisakhi Mela.

Exciting news from the club for Punjabi Music fans, Harbhajan Mann is performing live in Perth on 21st of March at Perth Convention Centre. The tickets are on sale now. This event has been organised by PCSC in collaboration with Perth International Education Centre, Mann Electricals and Sizzlin Events. Harbhajn Mann is touring Australia along with Rana Ranbir and promoting his new Punjabi Movie, Jag Jeondeyan De Mele. Don't be the one to miss the opportunity to watch this show.

The senior's tour was organised by SAWA to Bindoon and New Norsia. PCSC served them the lunch on site. Everyone on board enjoyed the hot food and appreciated the clubs involvement.
